第三节：听较长对话，选择最佳答案。读三遍。

听第一段对话，作答第 11~12 小题。

M: Helen, I'm going to hold a party on Saturday evening. Our basketball team has won the match.
Would you like to come?

W: Sure, I'd love to. Who else has been invited, Mark?

M: Most of them are my basketball teammates.

W: Will your cousin Dave come? He always brings a lot of laughter.

M: Yes, he is sure to come.

W: Great. By the way, I can bring a cake and some cookies.

M: That's nice of you. And we can make dumplings together.

W: Sounds interesting. I can't wait.

M: See you then.

听第二段对话，作答第 13~15 小题。

M: Why are you unhappy, Jane?

W: Because I was not allowed to watch TV last night.

M: It's bad for your eyes if you spend too much time on it.

W: Maybe you're right, Jack.

M: Look at what I made last night.

W: Wow, a model rocket. It's so cool. Did you make it all by yourself?

M: No, I learned a lot about rockets from our science teacher Mr Brown. Then I made this model rocket with my father's help.

W: Sounds great. Do you want to be an engineer?

M: No. I want to be an astronaut like my uncle and go into space someday.

W: I hope your dream comes true.

第四节：听短文，选择最佳答案。读三遍。

Hi, everyone. I'm Millie. Today, I'd like to talk about my travel plan this summer. Last year, I visited the Great Wall with my parents. It was amazing.

This summer, I want to visit Mount Huangshan. My friend Daniel's uncle went there last month, and he said it was wonderful. He saw beautiful trees, strange rocks, and even a fantastic sea of clouds. How lucky he was! The sea of clouds can be seen for about fifty days each year. I checked some information online yesterday. A ticket to Mount Huangshan costs one hundred and ninety yuan. I plan to stay there for three days. I think I will take a lot of pictures.

Nature is amazing, isn't it?
